- Miss Weddle recapped our progress with our Healthy Recipe competition.
- We discussed the prize for the winners and decided a pineapple!
- We discussed how we are going to announce the winners and we would like to hold an assembly to announce the winners.
- We discussed how we will publish the healthy recipe book. We want to save paper and make sure that everyone can access it rather than sell it.
- We decided we will create an electronic version that people can access through the website.
- The councillors were split into pairs to begin typing up the competition entries.
- We were able to type up the competition entries.
